Saturn is in Virgo, and lately become Retrograde there, and Jupiter is Direct in Aries. Mars is Direct in Motion in Libra, untill the 20th Day of this Month, and then removeth into Scorpio. Venus is in Aquary Retrograde untill the 26th Day, and then returneth again into Capricorn. Mercury is Direct in Motion in Capricorn, untill the 26th Day; at which time he removeth thence into Aquary.

The Aſpects and Configurations of this Month are both good and bad; ſo that we may expect various Reports will be ſpread abroad, and little Credit is to be given to our foreign News; and the former part of the Month produces no pleaſing News to Great Britain, though perhaps little Truth in it, as the Square of Jupiter and Mercury from Aries and Capricorn, plainly diſcovers; as doth the Square of Mars and Mercury alſo, being all in Cardinal Signs, and in Square and Oppoſition to Aries, England's Aſcendant; but the Trine of Saturn and the Sun, the Conjunction of the Sun and Venus, and the Sextile of the Sun and Jupiter, ſeem to promote Peace in foreign Parts, and brings better News from other remote Parts of the World.

The Weather at the beginning of the Month will be very cold by ſharp Froſts, preſently follow'd by Snow or cold Rain; the middle more temperate, and the latter end fair and froſty.

Full Moon the 7th day, at 10 before noon.
Last Quarter the 15th day, at 2 in the afternoon.
New Moon the 22d day, at 3 in the afternoon.

Saturn is in Virgo Retrograde all this Month, and about the 21st Day is in Oppoſition to Mercury. Jupiter is Direct in Aries, and at the beginning of the Month is in Sextile to Mercury. Mars is Direct in Scorpio, his Domal Dignities, all this Month, and about the middle in Trine to the Sun and Mercury. Venus is Retrograde in Capricorn untill the 7th Day of this Month, from which time ſhe becomes Direct in Motion. Mercury is in Aquarie Direct, and on the 10th Day goes into Piſces, and being ſwift in Motion, is got into Aries the 26th Day hereof, Aſpected as before, and alſo in Conjunction with the Sun.

What is pointed at according to the Influence of the Heavenly Bodies in this Month, is chiefly for compoſing long Differences, and putting an end to ſome troubleſome Diſpute abroad, which has been too long contending, and the Enemies of Great Britain daily diminiſh, and both her Friends and Grandeur ſtill increaſes, tho' we are not yet free from ſome little Murmurings and Diſcontents amongſt us, and towards the latter end of the Month, the Roads, I fear, will be incommoded with Highway-men.

The Weather at the beginning open and rainy; towards the middle fair and froſty, and the latter end produces Rain; open and favourable.

First Quarter the 1st day, at 8 in the morning.
Full Moon the 9th day, at 3 in the morning.
Last Quarter the 17th day, at 6 in the morning.
New Moon the 24th day, at 1 in the morning.

Saturn is yet Retrograde in Virgo, and the firſt Day of this Month is in Oppoſition to the Sun. Jupiter continues Direct in Aries to the laſt Day of the Month, and is in Sextile to Venus the 24th Day. Mars is in Scorpio all this Month, and continues Direct in Motion untill the 6th Day; from thence he becomes Retrograde all the Month after, and in Square to Venus the 2d Day. Venus is ſtill Direct, and in Aquarie untill the 27th, and then goeth into Piſces, and Aſpected as before, and in Sextile to Mercury the 2d Day. Mercury is in Aries all this Month, and is Direct in Motion untill the 18th Day; afterward Retrograde to the end of the Month.

Whatever the Affairs of Portugal may be, the Stars at preſent do not ſeem to favour that Nation; and Sweden ſtill labours under weighty Preſſures and Difficulties, not likely as yet to be accommodated.

There ſeems now to be ſome plotting and ſcurvey Deſign on foot; but diſcovered before it can give any Diſturbance. Some great Perſon of Truſt, if not Death, acquits his Office.

The Weather at the beginning of this Month is Rough, Winds and Stormy; but the middle and latter end will prove favourable and friendly both for the Spring and Seed-time.

Last Quarter the 15th day, at 6 in the afternoon.

Saturn continues Retrograde in Virgo, in Oppoſition to Venus, and Trine to the Sun. Jupiter has juſt entred Taurus, in Oppoſition to Mars, and in Conjunction of the Sun. Mars by his Retrograde Motion on the 14th Day, goes out of Scorpio into Libra, and in Oppoſition to the Sun and Mercury. Venus is ſtill Direct in Piſces, and goes into Aries the 24th Day. Mercury goes out of Aries into Taurus the 5th Day; and on the 22d Day, acquits Taurus, and enters Gemini.

Thus we ſee how variouſly the Heavenly Bodies are diſpoſed, ſome for Peace, and ſome for Oppreſſion; and War in ſeveral Parts is ſtill fomented and vigorouſly carried on: the malignant Oppoſitions made in this Month ſeem to bring on an early Campaign, and a furious Battle is threatned; but this ſeems to be far diſtant from us, and that we have no part in theſe nor ſuch like Misfortunes.

On the 22d Day is a Total Eclipſe of the Sun the middle whereof will be juſt at Nine in the Morning; at which time it will be ſo very dark that Travellers may miſtake their way; and if at that time the Sky be free from Clouds, the Stars will appear. It denotes the Death of Great Perſons, &c.

The Weather will be very various the moſt part of this Month, and much unſettled.

Full Moon the 7th day, at 11 before noon.
Last Quarter the 15th day, at 2 in the morning.
New Moon the 21st day, at 5 in the afternoon.
First Quarter the 28th day, at 11 at night.

Days Increased.

THE Planet Saturn is yet and will ſometime longer be in Virgo, and is ſtill Retrograde in Motion until the 9th Day of this Month, from whence he becomes in his Motion direct, and at the latter end of the Month in ſquare to the Sun and Mercury. Jupiter is direct in Taurus, and in Conjunction with Mercury. Mars is ſtill Retrograde in Libra until the 23d Day, from which time he becomes direct, and in Trine to Mercury the laſt day of the Month. Venus is in Aries until the 21ſt Day, at which time ſhe paſſes into Taurus. Mercury is in Aries, which he acquits the 5th Day, and goes into Taurus, where he continues till the 22d Day, and then enters into Gemini. From hence we may probably Conjecture that differences ſtill ariſe chiefly about Religious Matters. Clavis eſt Verbum ſcientiæ Scripturarum, per quam aperitur hominibus janua Veritatis. Men may continue their Obſtanacy and Folly till divine Vengeance overtake them, which in ſome ſhort time may further appear.

The Weather in this Month will be moſtly Suitable to the Seaſon of the Year, viz. Fair, Warm, with ſmall Winds, and ſometimes friendly Showers.

Last Quarter, the 13th day at 8 in the Morning.

Saturn is still in Virgo and lately become direct in motion, and is in Trine to Venus. Jupiter continues direct in Taurus all this Month, and at the beginning is in Conjunction with Venus. Mars is direct in Motion all this Month, and in Libra until the 29th Day, and is in Trine to the Sun, and in square to Mercury. Venus continues direct in Motion, and is in Taurus till the 27th Day, and then goes into Gemini. Mercury is direct all this Month, and is in Gemini until the 6th Day, at which time he goes into Cancer, where he continues until the One and Twentieth Day, and then goes into Leo.

By all before spoken to we may with good Reason conclude our Metropolis, London, is in a prosperous and flourishing Condition; the Voiages of the Merchants are Prosperous and Successful, and the Grandure of that great City appears to be amicable and glorious, and it may be wished that no Troubles arise by vexatious Controversies in the Northern Parts, to the Detriment of that Party who are the Contrivers and Propagators thereof.

The Weather will be generally Warm, attended with soft Winds, with some moderate Showers about the Full and New Moon, producing Plenty.

Astral Observations and Predictions, for the Year 1715. And a general Judgment thereon.

By William Andrews, Student in Astrology.

Et dixit Deus, sunt Luminaria in expansione cœlorum ad dividendum inter diem & inter noctem, & sint in signa & tempora & dies & annos, Gen. 1. 14.

THE learned Dr. Good in his Astro-Metrologica, in his Preface to the Reader tells us,— 'Philosophy I hope 'will

'will never be out of date, neither natural nor moral, becaus
'they are Lights that lead us, the one to admire the divin 'Nature, the other to follow it. In natural Philosophy 'the Planets and the Meteors teach their part, in Letter 'wrote in Light, (brighter than Gold, as more noble) an 'therefore visible to the Vulgar, who all believe a celestia 'Power, because they see it, this being admitted they are 'fairly invited to give heed to the other more spiritua
'Light, which sheweth good and evil in their Colours.
'never found but that Contemplation of the Heavens con'duced to the first, and therefore must manuduce to the 'second. A Shower of Rain, and a fruitful Season is a 'good Proof for a good God; and a pealing Storm o
'Thunder, is a Sermon from Heaven, the Voice of God 'and not of Man, such a rowsing Lesson, may shake even 'an Epicurean into a religious Horror; much more the plain-'er Vulgar, who are happy in this, that they have no blind 'acquired Bias to counterstway them from the Belief of a 'Deity. If an Influence of Sol, Mercury, Mars and Saturn
'&c. were as commonly known to the Husbandman or Sea'man, as the Novi— and Plenilunar Influence, how fami'liar would our Resentments be of Gods good Providence, 'how frequent would be the Occasions of Discourse there'on, what Advantages to Religion in its devotional Part,
'from the terrible Meteors in his Love, Gratitude, Ad'miration from the blessed Constitution. But the unlucky 'Principal of Mechanism amongst the Learned, and of Nature '(in the brutish Notion) amongst the Vulgar, hinders our 'Wish. But I hope this our Principle is so much the more 'prizable, that it clearly evacuates that Intrigue. And is 'it not pity that a foreign Mode of Philosophy, though 'transient with the Age, should debauch the present Gene'rations, defraud us of Arguments for Gods illustrious Pro'vidence, (urged so many thousand Years ago) and un-'hinge us from the Knowledge of the Creator, who is 'visible and palpable to us every 24 Hours. Thus far this learned Doctor, and now I proceed to speak

Of

Of the Winter Quarter.

The Brumal or Winter Quarter, begins at that Instant of time that the Autumnal Season ends, which according to the Rules of Astronomy, commenceth when the Sun toucheth the first Scruple of the Tropical Sign Capricorn, at which time the Sun is farthest deflected from us, which causeth our Days to be in the shortest, and our Nights the longest, the Sun being then in his Perigee, or nearest Distance from the Earth, and opposite to his Apogæon or farthest Distance from the Earth, which is in Cancer. This cold and uncomfortable, or rather melancholly Quarter, beginneth in the Year 1714. December the 11th Day at 3 in the Morning and continues all the time the Sun is passing through the Signs Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces, and refer you to the Scheme to see how the Planets are posited at the the time of this Ingress. The Aspects that are most remarkable are, ☐ ♄ ☿. ✶ ♄ ☽. ☌ ♃ ♂. ☐ ♃ ☉. ✶ ♃ ♀. △ ♃ ☿. ☐ ♃ ☽. △ ♂ ♀ ✶ ♂ ☿. ☐ ♂ ☽. ✶ ♀ ☿. The Fullmoon preventional is in Square to ♄ ♃, and Mars; and the Newmoon postventional affords us △ ♄ ☽. ☐ ♃ ☽, and ☐ ♂ ☽.

These Positions in a general way throughly consider'd will afford matter enough for us to comment upon for this Winter Quarter, and to be plain they are mostly of a previous and quarrellous Tendency, for the Opposition of Jupiter and Mars, from Aries and Libra Æquinoctial Signs, threatens these Countries signified thereby, with Treasons, Rebellion, Mutinees, Falshood, Perjuries, Violations or Breach of Leagues, or seemingly firm Agreements, and I heartily wish that these things does not happen too near us, and certainly the Square of Jupiter and the Sun pushes forwards the Effects, and that many private Differences will arise in several Places in this and some neighbouring Countries, as House breaking, the Roads disturbed with Highwaymen, Duelling, &c. In December we shall hear of many Differences to the former Purpose, and much winterly Weather will infest the latter Part of that Month. and the former part of January will be much to the ſame Purpoſe, but things ſeems towards the middle and latter End of this Month of January, to be put into a more regular Form, that is, there ſeems to be a better Underſtanding amongſt ſuch Princes as are hereby concern'd, as the Trine of Saturn and Jupiter to the Sun plainly diſcovers, and alters the Property of the Air, as producing a moiſt, open, and moderate Seaſon. The whole Month of February, and the Beginning of March, will produce us various Reports, ſome true, ſome falſe, but none very material. My Advice upon the whole is, that all Men would heartily endeavour, and ſtudy to promote Peace, and the Rules of good Living, whilſt Time and Opportunity gives them leave. Vitæ finem propende: de craſtino haud vilus ſecurus, Thus is the Winter Quarter (according to Aſtral cauſes) likely to prove, or to this Purpoſe, for the Stars does not ſpeak Words, tho' I know this noble and indeed divine Art hath many Adverſaries, and ſome of them Learned too, but theſe are of that Stamp that raſhly condemns what they never underſtood, nor ever took the Pains to know; but that learned Dr. Swadling was of a contrary Temper, tho' he was for ſome time an Enemy to this Science, yet when he had made a thorough Enquiry into it, he gave his Vote for it, as it is in his Divinity, fo'. 18. and 19. And theſe are his Words. viz. Many things I heretofore did believe againſt Aſtrology, and was perſuaded thereunto from its Name, Rout and End; but upon a juſt Examination, I retract; becauſe I find the Aſtrologer neither an Inchanter, Witch, or Dealer with Familiar Spirits, nor yet to meddle with Magia Demoniaca, and other Magia I read of none, but what is called Divina, Mathematica, or Phyſica; none of which I conceive will any wiſe Man ſay is unlawful; and therefore I give my Vote for the Legality of Aſtrology. And the Reaſons that induce me hereunto, are the ſame very ſame which perſwaded me to the contrary.

Firſt, Their Name, the Hebrews call the Stars, Maſſaloth of Nazal, which ſignifies influere; and the Rabbins call them Meharim of Sheret, which ſignifies miniſtrare: Whence that Axiom allowed by all Men, Aſtra non neceſſitant, ſed inclinant. And therefore by the the Stars may the Aſtrologer predict Mens Inclinations and Manners; which if good, may be heightned by a holy Ambition; if bad may be prevented by good Education.

Second,

Second, The Root, it was not Idolatry, but Obedience, upon which this Cyon was grafted, when the tree was almoſt withr'd, it was not Idolatry, but Innocence: Adam in Paradiſe was the Father of this Art, and had he as well obſerved the Star of Knowledge for the Direction of his Will as the Tree of Knowledge for the pleaſing of his Fancy, he had not yet been baniſhed. Abraham the Friend of God, and Father of the Faithful, was no Step-Father to Aſtrology, if we believe Antiquity. It was not Idolatry but Wiſdom, from which this Art got Life, after it had long lay bleeding: Solomon the wiſeſt of Men, was the beſt Aſtrologer the World ever train'd, and why were the Prieſts of Egypt forbidden the Study of all the Arts, and yet permitted to Study Aſtrology; and why do the Arabicks call their Aſtrologers Cachin, which comes of Cohn which ſignifies a Prieſt; ſurely it is to tell the Aſtrologer, that though the Presbyter may be his Enemy, yet the Prieſt may be his Friend, and allow his Art lawful, not only only for the Root of it, but alſo (3) for the end of it; which cannot be injurious to God, becauſe the Aſtrologer confeſſeth, Sapiens dominabitur Aſtris. And Mr. Caryl tells us, That it is our Duty to ſtudy the Heavens, and to be acquainted with the Stars. Hence it plainly appears that in Aſtrology there is nothing contrary, but conſonant to Divinity and to the holy Scriptures.

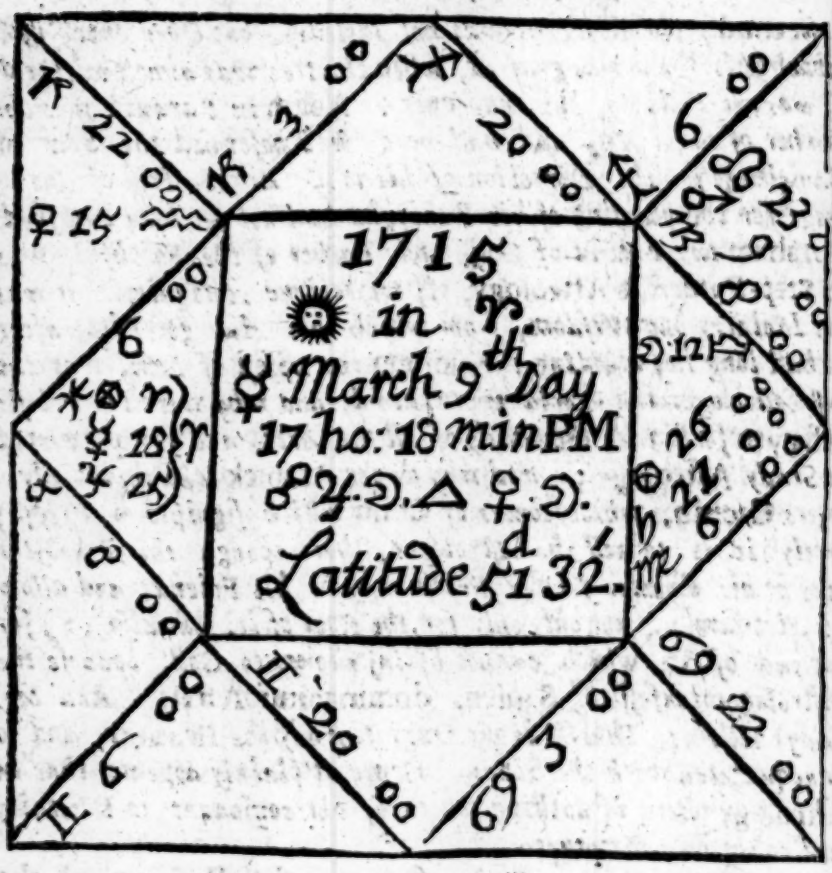
Next comes on the Spring Quarter, the Poſition of the Heavens at which time, are as followeth in the Scheme, and which is ſuppoſed to be the time of the Worlds Creation, for moſt of the Learned are of that Opinion.



Here we see the Spring Quarter commenceth Astronomically, on Wednesday the 9th of March 17 Hours 18 Minutes post meridiem, but according to the vulgar way of accounting on Thursday the 10th of March 18 min past 5 in the Morning. at which time 6 Degrees of Pisces riseth in the East Horizon, and 20 Degrees of Sagittarius is upon the Midheaven, and Saturn is posited in 21 Degrees of Virgo, in Sextile to Mars in Scorpio his domal Dignities. Jupiter is in 25 Degrees of Aries, in Sextile of Venus, Conjunction of Mercury and Opposition of the Moon from the Ascendant and seventh Houses Mars is in 9 Degrees of Scorpio nearly with the Dragons Head, and in Square to Venus in the 12th House. Venus is in 15 Degrees of Aquarius, in Sextile to Mercury, and Trine of the Moon. Mercury is in 18 Degrees of Aries, intercepted between Sol and Jupiter in the Ascendant. The Moon is in 12 Degrees of Libra, in Opposition to the Sun, Jupiter and Mercury.

Thus

Thus we are given to underſtand how the heavenly Bodies are poſited, at the time of the principal Ingreſs, and how they are gently inclining the Minds and Diſpoſitions of moſt People in theſe and ſome other Countries to Peace, Love and Unity, tho the common People have ſtill ſome Grumblings, not yet quite rubb'd out, and yet there are ſtill abroad troubleſome Debates, ſtrugling and contending Intereſts, in which I fear the King of Sweden will yet be a further Sufferer, and the reſt of the northern Crowns wages ſtill a better Underſtanding, and yet (with good reaſon) I believe we ſhall not be long before we hear of ſome Alteration in theſe Affairs for the better, viz. That Propoſals are made for the Accommodation of Differences ſtill depending both in Church and State, and as for our domeſtick Affairs, in the main, they proceed in good order, the Summer proves moderate and ſeaſonable, producing a good and healthful Seaſon. The Seas freed from Pyracies of thoſe we moſtly feared, and the Merchants proſper, tho I fear the Roads will be diſturbed in ſeveral parts of this Kingdom, Houſeburning, Duelling, &c. But before I conclude my Judgment of this Part of the Year, I ſhall take notice of two Eclipſes which will happen this Quarter, viz. One of the Sun, and the other of the Moon, but eſpecially that viſible Eclipſe of the Sun, which will prove the moſt remarkable Eclipſe that has happened ſome hundreds of Years laſt paſt: Firſt, In reſpect of its Greatneſs, for it will prove total, with 3 or 4 Minutes Continuance near the Center of England, which happens on the 22th day of April near 9 in the Morning, ſo that if the Sky be free from Clouds, and proves a clear Air, it will be ſo dark that the Stars will for ſome little time appear, and as ſuch an Eclipſe is unuſual, ſo will it be terrible to behold. Secondly, its Effects will accordingly be anſwerable, it happening in Taurus it will exert its Force upon the Fruits of the Earth in general, according to Junctinus fol. 309. Eclipſibus, chiefly ſuch as is for the Support of Mankind. Quippe quòd ſpecifera, videlicet virgo & arator Taurus & imprimis caper hujuſmodi fructus comedere & devaſtare conſueverunt. But at the time of this Eclipſe, Saturn is in Trine to the Luminaries, which will much abate the Rigidneſs of its Effects. The other is no viſible Eclipſe of the Moon, which happens in Scorpio, on the 7th of May ne noon, which according to some Authors of note should si nifie the Death of the vulgar and ignoble sort of People, also denotes Wars in several Places, and overflowing a breaking of the Sea Banks; and this most certain, it plainly manifest by Experience in all Ages, that Eclipses ha their Influences and Operations, and have always been atte ded with some notable Events and Sequels. In genere fil experientia Philosophos & Astrologos docuit, eclipses in natu habere suas causas, & simul esse signa pœnarum. Which w have seen plentifully fulfilled in our time, do but peruse th Writings of the Astrologers, and you shall find that Eclips have great Influencies, tho' some (void of Art) have though the contrary, but Messahalah in his 7th Book de rebus Eclip um, tells them this Lesson. Sito quòd in eclipsi non potest s ri, quia significetur magnum aliquod accidens, secundùm qua titatem ipsius eclipsis. Them that are not satisfied with thi let them have Recourse to the Works of Ptolomy, Albumasa Junctine, Cardane, Origan, Eachstadz, Argol and seven others, and they there will be made sensible, that Eclips have their Effects, both upon Man and Beasts, upon th Fruits of the Earth, and also upon Vegitables and Anima

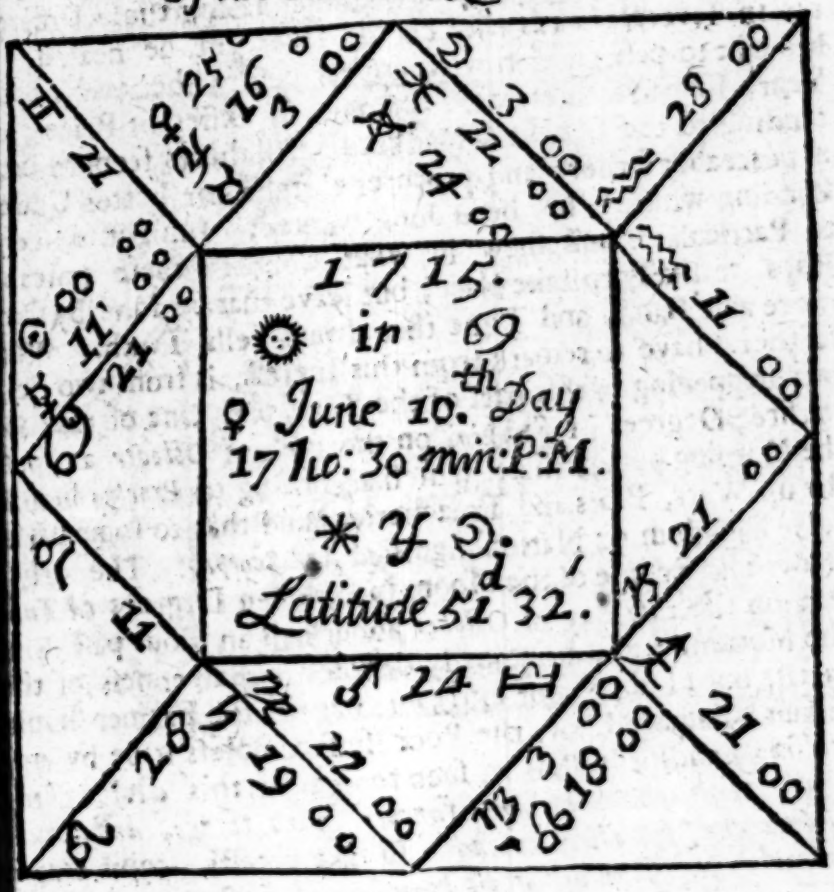
Of the Summer Quarter.



The Position of the Heavens at the time of this Summer Ingress, is of a very friendly Nature, and finding the Planets well placed, and also friendly aspected, gives us reason to hope of better things than formerly, for Saturn is in Virgo the Dignities of Mercury, and in Trine to Jupiter and Venus, in the House of Friendship, and in sextile to Mercury, Jupiter is in Taurus the Dignities of Venus, in the eleventh in Conjunction with Venus and sextile to the Moon. Mars is in Libra, and in Trine to the Sun.

Venus is in Taurus her domal Dignities and in Conjunction with Jupiter as before, Mercury is in Cancer the Dignities of the Moon, and (as before) is in sextile to Saturn and Jupiter, and the Moon in Pisces the Dignities of Jupiter, and in sextile to him also.

By

By which I conclude, that the Affairs of Europe in general, are in a hopeful way of accommodating those Differences in several Kinds that could never yet be healed, brought to pass, which will appear before the end of the Year, I mean such eminent Changes in different Places, tending to the Benefit of Mankind. All things seem to be in a peaceable Order, and procures a right, or better Understanding where it has been long wanted. I might descend to Particulars, and shew in what Country these amicable Rays are likely to take place, but leave that be done by some more able Hand, and Time that always tells Truth. What further I have to remark from this Ingress, is from two Eclipses happening in this part of the Year, viz. One of the Sun in three Degrees of Scorpio, on the 16th of October at 9 in the Morning but invisible, which according to Proclus should stir up Wars, Plots and Treacheries, and that to some particular Kingdom or Nation signified by Scorpio. The other is a visible Eclipse of the Moon in eighteen Degrees of Taurus, on the 31st day of October about half an Hour past 4 in the Morning; and principally denotes a Barrenness of the Earth, but (I hope) not extream that the the Farmer should be much damaged, or the Poor suffer, unless it be by oppressing Landlords, but let such remember this divine Precept. Man whilst he lives fancies many things, and covets without end, but all to no end. Et quæ parasti, cujus erunt? either they pass from us, or we from non est nostrum, quod non est semper nostrum. Those very Towers which they have built, uno ictu prosternentur. E'er long two Ells of Earth shall serve, whom scarce a World could satisfie. But if such would rightly consider, that Acts of Charity, Mercy and Humility would much better become them, and doubtless prove the more becoming Ornament.

Of the Autumn Quarter,

Which begins this Year September the 12th at 43 Min. aſt 6 afternoon, the Sun then entring the firſt ſcruple of Libr, producing the ſecond Æquinox, to all on this ſide the olar Circles; it is called Autumn from Augeo, fruges augen-r, for the Fruits of the Earth are increaſed and ripened: his Seaſon is by Nature cold and dry, therefore the ſan-uine are beſt in Health, and the Melancholly ſubject to Di-empers, beſt for Youth, but worſt for Age, when this eaſon hath frequently North-Winds and is dry, then are Men and Women of moiſt Complections in beſt Health, ut Men of other Conſtitutions and Nature ſhall be affli-ted with dry Diſeaſes, with long and ſharp Fevers.

This

This Quarter the Jews own for the first Quarter of t Year, and their reason is, Quia Tempus est fructus sum, acco ding to that in the Scripture, Et protulit terra herbam viri tem, And the Earth brought forth the green Herb, yielding Fr according to its kind. But to return to the former Schem in which we find 25 Degrees of Aries ascending in the E and 10 Degrees of Capricorn on the midheaven. The M is in 15 Degrees of Leo in square to Jupiter in the Ascenda and in trine to Mars in the 8th House. Saturn is in 28 D grees of Virgo, in Trine to Jupiter, and in Conjunction the Sun, Venus, Mercury. Jupiter is in 26 Degrees of Tauru in Trine to the Sun, in square to the Moon, and in Trine Venus and Mercury. Mars is in 13 Degrees of Sagitary, square to Venus, and Trine to the Moon. Venus is in degrees of Virgo, and in Conjunction with Mercury and t Moon. Mercury is in 27 degrees of the same Sign and inte cepted there between Saturn and Venus. The prevention Full moon sympatizeth very little with the Figure of th Ingress, it being but of a sower and rugged Temper, but th postventional New Moon is of a quite contrary Nature, an of a peaceable and quiet Tendency: Thus have I given m Reader a View of the Motions, Aspects, and Configuration of the Heavenly Bodies at the time of this Autumnal Ingress; all which considered is likely to produce some unthought Alteration in some Parts of the World, towards the Nort and North East, let the King of Swiden do his Pleasure hi Case seems deploreable; and troublesome Contests still on th Anvil between the northern Crowns, and it will not be lon before something very remarkable will happen in some o those Countries: But blessed be God the Stars seem friendly to Great-Britain, and some part of the Low-Countries, i short things here in the main succeed well, and if Pride, F ction, designing, Tricking and Cheating, were not too much practised amongst us, we might still hope God would continue his Mercies of Peace and Plenty to us and succeeding Ages, but if Men will wilfully by their Impieties provok God daily, what can we expect. I shall therefore from a Author sensible of the Times, explain the Tempers and Inclinations of Men in these days.

To

To see in these days how Noblemen, Gentlemen, and seeral of the long Robe too, are degenerated from their refathers, in their evil Customs, as first by swearing, hereas the Ancients (and in Cases necessary, and not other-se) seldom swear by any other Oath than —By the Faith a Gentleman. Secondly, God is always at hand with the t Man, which are not seen now adays to walk in Troops, great Companies, yet let the Torrent of corrupt Manners never so violent, we are not without some great Persons excellent Virtue amongst us. Thirdly. It may be obserd from several Persons of Note, that Truth is fled, and e contrary appears too plain, for small account is made of oral Virtues now adays, that the Vices next to them are ken for the Virtues themselves. Fourthly, That they be furious, passionate and desperate, are called stout and va-nt, that stand upon their Honour. Fifthly, To live loose-and lasciviously is called Friendship, or Friendliness and ourtesie. Sixthly, Those that are ambitious, and practise lawful Means to make themselves great in Dignities, are ow called honourable and worthy Men, and fit for Places trust in the Government. Seventhly, To be covetous d miserable, is now called Thriftiness and good Husband-, and these kind of men call their like provident Men. ghtly, To dissemble and deceive is now taken for Wisdom Prudence. Ninthly, As for such as are guilty of abusing ther Mens Wives and Daughters, is such called Friendliss and Courtesie. Tenthly, To run over all the Virtues d Vices in this sort, we shall see such Metamorphosis or ransformation, that it would be sufficient to persuade us, at the Ages past, have discharged all their Malice into the ge we live in. Eleventhly The Minds and Desires of Men e grown very variable, and therefore their Resolutions and abours very uncertain. Twelfthly, Here take a View of hat things Mens minds are mostly employ'd in, in these Days. Viz. 1st, In getting Riches they care not how.
dly, Increasing their Possessions until they know not when.
dly, In setting out their Bodies with they cannot tell what.
thly, Carried away with Pleasure they know not whither. thly, Hunting after Reputation they know not from whence. thly, Seeking Happiness they cannot tell where.

Thirteenthly,

Thirteenthly, Luxuriousness and Intemperance are flatte Evils, and creep sweetly into Mens minds; with these tes Virtue is destroyed, the Glory that hath been gotte turned into Infamy, the Strength of the Body and Mind weakened, and the Laws of Honesty overcome. Fo teenthly, A poor Table is the Mother of Health, and a r Table the Mother of Diseases. Fifteenthly, Gain now ad contracteth Friendship, which is no sooner discontinue but Friendship is dissolved, and 'tis further observed, t Virtue and Honesty neither beginneth nor continue Friendship. Seneca saith it is very good to follow the St of our Forefathers if they led the way well, for Lands, Rich and other Vanities have gotten away the Reputation, V tue and honesty is out of request: Whatever is had in Rep tation encreaseth, but that which is had in Contempt a not regarded diminisheth. Virtue is supplanted, and Vi springs up in her room, the name of Virtue and Honesty of many desired, but of very few deserved, and they that worthy of that name, except they have great store of Goo and Lands, they have no amicable Aspect amongst Me Callimachus the Poet said, that Riches without virtue do n ver give Reputation to a man, but Virtue giveth a great an good Reputation, but in these days it appears far otherwis for now Riches without Virtue giveth Honour and Repu tion, and Virtue without Riches giveth none at all. E genus & formam regina pecunia donat. That is, Queen Mo ney giveth both Birth and Beauty. And in no time coul it be more fully more truly said than in these Days. Virt post nummos, Virtue after Money, Riches and Possessions ar preferred to honourable Places, and are set at the upper en of the Table, but Virtue and Learning are thrust down be hind the Skreen, ubi multum de intellectu, ibi parum de fortun In former time the Worthiness of Men was measured by their Virtue, and not by their Riches and honourable E states. I shall here conclude my this Years Discourse with a pithy Exhortation from Mr. Brathwait's English Gentleman, p. 454. Now Gentlemen, that I may take a friendly Farewel of you, I am to exhort you to a Course virtuous, which among good Men is ever held most generous. Le not! O let not the Pleasures of Sin for a Season, withdraw your ur Minds from that exceeding great Weight of Glory, kept ſtore for the faithful, after their Paſſage from this Vale Miſery; often call to mind the Riches of that Kingdom er which you ſeek, thoſe freſh Paſtures, fragrant Mea-ws, and redolent Fields diapred and embroidered with eeteſt and choiceſt Flowers, thoſe bleſſed Citizens, heanly Saints and Servants of God, who ſerved him here on rth faithfully, and now reign with him triumphantly. t your Hearts be enditers of a good matter, and your oices Viols to their heavenly meaſure. O how glorious ings are ſpoken of thee thou City of God, as the Habitaon of all that rejoyce is in thee: Thou art founded on the altation of the whole Earth, there is in thee neither old e, nor the miſeries of old age, there is in thee neither aim, nor lame, nor crooked, nor deformed, ſeeing all tain to the perfect man, to that meaſure of Age, or fullneſs Chriſt. Who would not become humble Petitioners be-re the Throne of Grace, to be made Partakers of ſuch an ceeding Weight of Glory, that I may conclude, and in ncluding perſuade you, neglect not this opportunate time Grace that is now offer'd you, ſo that this momentary fe being well employed, it will at laſt bring you to the uition of Eternity. Short and momentary are the Afflions of this Life, yet ſupported with Patience, and ſubduwith long Sufferance, they crown the Sufferer with Gloendleſs. Short likewiſe are the Pleaſures of this Life, hich as they are of ſhort Continuance, ſo they bring rth no other Fruit than the bitter Pills of Repentance: hereas in Heaven for ever are true Joys and Comforts nly to be found, no carnal but cordial Joy, Bliſs and Hapneſs, no laughter of the Body but of the Heart, for tho' the ighteous ſorrow, their Sorrows end when this their tem-oral Life ends, but Joy ſhall come upon them without end.

Theſe uſeful Meditations may become ſerviceable when you are oking in your Almanack for other matters, whither you be at me, or in your Fields, or when you are journeying on the Way, d do but compare your Compliance with theſe Pleaſures, and u will moſt unqueſtionably find that Rioting, Triumphs and evelling, to be rather occaſions of Sorrow than Solace, mourn-g than rejoicing, they may take all Advantages of all ſuch temporal temporal Pleasures as best suits their Temper, but none, no these cannot allay the least Pang of an afflicted Conscience, so it will be the best and surest way to live a virtuous and holy so that whatever Death the King of Terrors shall approach mortal Bodies with, he may be the only Messenger to bring us Tidings of glorious things.
